

2015/16 Board Member Bio's

DG62856/15

Christopher Puplick, AM

BA (Hons), MA, JP

- Chair, Justice Health & Forensic Mental Health Network Board
- Council of Board Chairs, NSW Health
- Deputy Chair, Advisory Council National Archives of Australia; Chair William Fletcher Foundation
- Principal, Issus Solutions Pty Ltd
- Former Senator for NSW, President of the NSW Anti-Discrimination Board and Privacy Commissioner.
- Former Chair of the Australian National Council on HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis C and Related; Diseases; AIDS Trust of Australia; Central Sydney Area Health Service
- Former member Theatre Board, Australia Council and Chair National Film and Sound Archives
- Represented Australia at international meetings on HIV/AIDS (United Nations General Assembly 2001) and the International Whaling Commission.

Ken Barker, PSM

FI PA, GAICD

- Deputy Chair, Justice Health & Forensic Mental Health Network Board
- Director, Ken Barker Consulting Pty Ltd
- 42 years of experience in public sector management, finance and risk management across four large NSW Government agencies
- Former Chief Financial Officer for NSW Health (1987-2009), managing the large NSW Health budget and providing expert financial advice and strategy on State and Commonwealth health initiatives and policy
- Currently a Chair/member of a number of NSW/Commonwealth Audit and Risk Committees.

Gary Forrest

RN, BScN, MAppMgt(Hlth), MAICD

- Chief Executive Justice Health & Forensic Mental Health Network
- 30 years' experience in Nursing (intensive care units, emergency departments, sexual health services, drug and alcohol service including the Medically Supervised Injecting Centre and teaching nursing at colleges and universities
- Previous roles held at Justice Health & Forensic Mental Health Network included; nursing management, Population Health, managing the Long Bay (prison) Hospital and Executive Director Clinical Operations (Custodial Health).

Adrian Bartels

BA of Economics and Social Sciences

- Director and Finance Broker at Bartels Property Finance
- Past Chair of the Potts Point Partnership
- Past Executive Director the Kings Cross Festival
- Active member of the Kings Cross community, including Medically Supervised Injecting Centre Community Guidance Committee, 2011 Residents' Association and Volunteer Primary Ethics Teacher.

Alison Churchill

BA (Hons) Social Policy & Administration (First Class) & CQSW

- Chief Executive Officer, Community Restorative Centre
- Member of the Premier's Council on Homelessness
- Qualified Social Worker and Counsellor in England and Australia, working in the fields of Probation and Parole, women's services, child protection, child sexual assault, alcohol and other drugs, and the treatment of child sex offenders
- Recipient of the 2013 Justice Medal, sponsored by the Law and Justice Foundation of NSW.

Ian Gillespie

F CPA, FAIM, MAICD

- Extensive background in senior financial and administrative management positions across public and private sector.
- Currently holds the senior status of Fellow with CPA Australia
- Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management
- Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors
- Former Director of Finance and Administration for the Department of Education and Training (now known as Department of Education and Communities)
- Former General Manager, Finance for the NSW TAFE Commission.

Stuart Loveday

BCom

- Chief Executive Officer, Hepatitis NSW, President, Community Restorative Centre (CRC) Board of Management.
- Former President and founding executive member of Hepatitis Australia
- Community representative, NSW Ministry of Health Hepatitis B and C Strategies 2014 – 2020 Implementation
Committee Co-Chair Gastroenterological Network, Co-Chair Hepatitis Working Group, NSW Agency for Clinical Innovation
- Contributes extensively to advocacy for evidence-based harm reduction policy and practice in drug use and other public health settings for expanded models of care and better access to improved testing, management and treatment for all people living with Hepatitis C or Hepatitis B, reduced transmission of Hepatitis C and reduced stigma and discrimination impacting on the lives of people with Hepatitis C or with Hepatitis B.

Michelle Eason

BSc (Nursing), MN (Mental Health)

- Head Practice Development Unit
- Honorary Appointment as an Associate with UTS
- Conjoint lecturer at University of New South Wales
- Extensive nursing experience with a special interest in Forensic Mental Health
- Passionate about developing the knowledge and capability of clinicians to enhance their effectiveness which supports good patient outcomes.

Peter Dwyer

M.Sc.Soc., Dip Law, MPS Ph.C.

- Barrister admitted to the Bar in 1978. Practice has included Law/Litigation relevant to Health professions, hospitals and Pharmaceuticals and drug regulation; Coronial Inquests, including appearances as Counsel Assisting the Coroner
- Mediator – Nationally Accredited NNAS

- Former Principal Member – NSW Civil & Administrative Tribunal (NCAT), Occupational Division (Health Professions); Chairperson, former NSW Pharmacy Tribunal; former Deputy Chairperson of other NSW Health Professional disciplinary tribunals
- Former President Australian Academy of Forensic Sciences and current Council Member
- Honorary Fellow, Australian College of Legal Medicine
- Honorary Life Member, NSW Medic-Legal Society
- Prior qualifications and practice in Pharmacy.

Shireen Malamoo

- Involved in Aboriginal Affairs for more than 20 years, particularly in Northern Queensland
- Former Chairperson of the Aboriginal Media Association, Aboriginal Legal Service, and the Aboriginal Medical Service (Townsville)
- Former Commissioner of Queensland's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Commission from 1990 to 1993
- Previously a member of the NSW Parole Board and Juvenile Justice NSW Parole Board and the Aboriginal Medical Service (Redfern).

Professor Terry Campbell, AM

BSc (Med), MB BS MD (UNSW), DPhil (Oxon), FRACP, FACC

- Clinical cardiologist, including Head of Department of Medicine at St Vincent's Hospital and Deputy Dean of Medicine at University of New South Wales
- Member of the Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee (2001-present)
- Past President of the Cardiac Society of Australia and New Zealand (2000-2)
- Director of the Coronary Care Unit at St Vincent's Hospital Sydney (1990-99)
- Former Chair of the Therapeutics Advisory Committee of the Royal Australian College of Physicians (1996-2000)
- Extensive research in cardiac pharmacology and clinical cardiological research, with more than 100 peer-reviewed papers.

Penny Abbott

MBBS Hons, MPH, FRACGP

- Senior Lecturer, Department of General Practice, University Western Sydney supervising and undertaking research within the Department, with a particular focus on collaboration, social justice and clinical and health services research important to primary care and the community.
- Clinician in the Aboriginal community controlled health sector and within the women's health stream of Justice Health & Forensic Mental Health Network.
- Member of Royal Australian College of General Practitioners RACGP Ethics Committee
- Member of the RACGP Faculty of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health and Wentwest Primary Health Network Clinical Council.